

The Marine
Mammal Center

EDITORIAL CALENDAR OF EVENTS 2013

Open Daily 10 am – 5 pm (except Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's Day). Admission is free.

| JANUARY | | | |
|--------------------------|--|--|--------------------------|
| Date(s) | Event | Description | Location |
| January 2– January 31 | The Ghost Below Art Exhibit | Visit us and experience The Ghost Below - an art experience inspired by one whale's monstrous meal! Richard Lang and Judith Selby Lang's exhibit has been featured at over 40 locations. | The Marine Mammal Center |
| January 13 | Marine Science Sunday: Animals of the Arctic | Second Sunday of each month – Free public program with different themes each month looking at a variety of marine mammals through interactive presentations, lectures and workshops. | The Marine Mammal Center |

| FEBRUARY | | | |
|-----------------------------|---|--|--------------------------|
| Date(s) | Event | Description | Location |
| February 1 – February 28 | The Ghost Below Art Exhibit | Visit us and experience The Ghost Below - an art experience inspired by one whale's monstrous meal! Richard Lang and Judith Selby Lang's exhibit has been featured at over 40 locations. | The Marine Mammal Center |
| February 10 | Marine Science Sunday: Love is in the | Second Sunday of each month – Free public program with different themes each month looking at a variety of marine mammals through interactive | The Marine |

The Marine
Mammal Center®

EDITORIAL CALENDAR OF EVENTS 2013

Open Daily 10 am – 5 pm (except Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's Day). Admission is free.

| | | | |
|--|---|--|---------------|
| | Air: Marine Mammal Parents and Pups | presentations, lectures and workshops. | Mammal Center |
|--|---|--|---------------|

MARCH

| Date | Event | Description | Location |
|-----------------------|--|--|--------------------------|
| March 1 - March 31 | The Ghost Below Art Exhibit | Visit us and experience The Ghost Below - an art experience inspired by one whale's monstrous meal! Richard Lang and Judith Selby Lang's exhibit has been featured at over 40 locations. | The Marine Mammal Center |
| March 10 | Marine Science Sunday: Coastline Cuteness-Sea Otters | Second Sunday of each month – Free public program with different themes each month looking at a variety of marine mammals through interactive presentations, lectures and workshops. | The Marine Mammal Center |
| March 13 | Members Only Night | Second Wednesday of each month March – September. After hours program for Marine Mammal Center members featuring guest speakers and presentations that give a rich context to the work done at the Center. | The Marine Mammal Center |

The Marine
Mammal Center

EDITORIAL CALENDAR OF EVENTS 2013

Open Daily 10 am – 5 pm (except Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year’s Day). Admission is free.

| APRIL | | | |
|------------------------|--|---|--|
| Date(s) | Event | Description | Location |
| April 1 – April 30 | The Ghost Below Art Exhibit | Visit us and experience The Ghost Below - an art experience inspired by one whale's monstrous meal! Richard Lang and Judith Selby Lang’s exhibit has been featured at over 40 locations. | The Marine Mammal Center |
| April 10 | Members Only Night | Second Wednesday of each month March – October. After hours program for Marine Mammal Center members featuring guest speakers and presentations that give a rich context to the work done at the Center. | The Marine Mammal Center |
| April 14 | Marine Science Sunday: To the Rescue | Second Sunday of each month – Free public program with different themes each month looking at a variety of marine mammals through interactive presentations, lectures and workshops. | The Marine Mammal Center |
| April 20 – April 26 | IAAAM Annual Conference | This year’s theme is “Aquatic Animal Health in a Changing World” and will focus on environmental and anthropogenic threats and impacts to aquatic animal health and habitat. This is the first time The Marine Mammal Center is hosting the conference. Approximately 150 – 200 scientists and researchers from around the world will be in ton to attend this conference. For more | The Marine Mammal Center & Cavallo Point |

The Marine
Mammal Center®

EDITORIAL CALENDAR OF EVENTS 2013

Open Daily 10 am – 5 pm (except Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year’s Day). Admission is free.

| | | | |
|-----------------|------------------------|---|--------------------------|
| | | details, go to: www.iaaam.org . | |
| April 22 | Open House – Earth Day | This is a free event for the public to visit and enjoy all that The Marine Mammal Center has to offer including activity areas for kids, educational tours and ocean-related activities to celebrate Earth Day. | The Marine Mammal Center |

MAY

| Date(s) | Event | Description | Location |
|-----------------------|--|--|--------------------------|
| May 1 – May 31 | The Ghost Below Art Exhibit | Visit us and experience The Ghost Below - an art experience inspired by one whale's monstrous meal! Richard Lang and Judith Selby Lang’s exhibit has been featured at over 40 locations. | The Marine Mammal Center |
| May 8 | Members Only Night | Second Wednesday of each month March – October. After hours program for Marine Mammal Center members featuring guest speakers and presentations that give a rich context to the work done at the Center. | The Marine Mammal Center |
| May 10 | 2013 Gala Celebration | Our biggest celebration and fundraiser of the year moves from the Fall to the Spring in 2013 with some great events and fun. | The Marine Mammal Center |
| May 12 | Marine Science Sunday: Save the Hawaiian Monk Seal | Second Sunday of each month – Free public program with different themes each month looking at a variety of marine mammals through interactive presentations, lectures and workshops. | The Marine Mammal Center |

The Marine
Mammal Center®

EDITORIAL CALENDAR OF EVENTS 2013

Open Daily 10 am – 5 pm (except Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year’s Day). Admission is free.

| | | | |
|-----------------------------------|--|--|------------------------------------|
| May 17 – May 19 | Sausalito Film Festival | The Festival film showings will be held at the Cinearts Marin Theater on Caledonia Street in Sausalito, and at Cavallo Point at historic Fort Baker, with the skyline of San Francisco as a backdrop, it is located at the foot of the Golden Gate Bridge in Sausalito, Marin County. | Cavallo Point at Fort Baker |
|-----------------------------------|--|--|------------------------------------|

JUNE

| Date | Event | Description | Location |
|--------------------------------|--|--|---------------------------------|
| June 1 – June 30 | The Ghost Below Art Exhibit | Visit us and experience The Ghost Below - an art experience inspired by one whale's monstrous meal! Richard Lang and Judith Selby Lang's exhibit has been featured at over 40 locations. | The Marine Mammal Center |
| June 6 – June 15 | Preview week of Indra's Net | As part of the Ghost Below exhibit – join us for a preview of the exhibit's next installment called Indra's Net. This sculpture, also made from netting extracted from the belly of a sperm whale. Through its interactive components (guest will be able to write messages of hope to attach to it) Indra's Net will remind all of the interconnectedness we share with the environment. | The Marine Mammal Center |
| June 9 | Marine Science Sunday | Second Sunday of each month – Free public program with different themes each month looking at a variety of marine mammals through interactive | The Marine Mammal Center |

The Marine
Mammal Center®

EDITORIAL CALENDAR OF EVENTS 2013

Open Daily 10 am – 5 pm (except Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year’s Day). Admission is free.

| | | presentations, lectures and workshops. | |
|----------------------------|--|---|---|
| June 9 – June 30 | Summer with the Seals | Enjoy our summer schedule with docent-led tours 3 times daily, as well as special events and open houses that bring to life marine mammal natural history and ocean conservation. Average number of patients on site during this time is about 50 and visitors can see both elephant seals and California sea lions on site. Also features Sizzling Summer Campers program – great for groups! | The Marine Mammal Center |
| June 9 – June 15 | California sea lion birthday! | Special week long celebrations of one of the more popular pinnipeds along the California coast – sea lions! Mid June is when the majority of sea lions are born and the Center will celebrate the birthday with special activities throughout the week. | The Marine Mammal Center |
| June 10 – August 16 | Outside Adventure Summer Camp | The Outside Adventure Kids Multi-Sport Camp offers fun outdoor pursuits each day with an emphasis on developing friendships, understanding risks, and learning. Activities are age appropriate and include: Rock Climbing, Mountain Biking, Hiking, Kayaking and Stand-Up Paddle boarding. Each week of camp will include one hiking day to the Marin Headlands. Groups will begin and end these days at The Marine Mammal Center. In the morning, The Marine Mammal Center Educators will provide an educational overview of the Center. | Marin Headlands – The Marine Mammal Center |

The Marine
Mammal Center®

EDITORIAL CALENDAR OF EVENTS 2013

Open Daily 10 am – 5 pm (except Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year’s Day). Admission is free.

| | | | |
|---------------------------|--|--|--------------------------|
| June 12 | Members Only Night | Second Wednesday of each month March – October. After hours program for Marine Mammal Center members featuring guest speakers and presentations that give a rich context to the work done at the Center. | The Marine Mammal Center |
| June 17 – Sept. 16 | Dive into The Marine Mammal Center – NEW program experience! | NEW – This summer, you can join The Marine Mammal Center for an ocean of fun with our Drop-In Classroom Experiences. Specially crafted for the marine mammal lover in every family and led by our engaging Marine Science Educators and volunteers, these special programs engage the whole family – you’ll create art with real ocean trash, enjoy hands-on exploration with pelts and skulls, and learn how our veterinarians care for our flipper footed friends. Mondays and Fridays at 12pm and 2pm | The Marine Mammal Center |

JULY

| Date | Event | Description | Location |
|-------------------------|-------------------------------------|---|-----------------|
| July 1 – July 31 | The Ghost Below Art | Visit us and experience The Ghost Below - an art experience inspired by one | The Marine |

The Marine
Mammal Center®

EDITORIAL CALENDAR OF EVENTS 2013

Open Daily 10 am – 5 pm (except Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year’s Day). Admission is free.

| | | | |
|----------------------------|--|---|---|
| | Exhibit | whale's monstrous meal! Richard Lang and Judith Selby Lang’s exhibit has been featured at over 40 locations. | Mammal Center |
| July 1 – July 31 | Summer with the Seals | Enjoy our summer schedule with docent-led tours 3 times daily, as well as special events and open houses that bring to life marine mammal natural history and ocean conservation. Average number of patients on site during this time is about 50 and visitors can see both elephant seals and California sea lions on site. Also features Sizzling Summer Campers program – great for groups! | The Marine Mammal Center |
| June 10 – August 16 | Outside Adventure Summer Camp | The Outside Adventure Kids Multi-Sport Camp offers fun outdoor pursuits each day with an emphasis on developing friendships, understanding risks, and learning. Activities are age appropriate and include: Rock Climbing, Mountain Biking, Hiking, Kayaking and Stand-Up Paddle boarding. Each week of camp will include one hiking day to the Marin Headlands. Groups will begin and end these days at The Marine Mammal Center. In the morning, The Marine Mammal Center Educators will provide an educational overview of the Center. | Marin Headlands – The Marine Mammal Center |
| June 17 – Sept. 16 | Dive into The Marine Mammal Center – NEW program experience! | NEW – This summer, you can join The Marine Mammal Center for an ocean of fun with our In Classroom Experiences . Specially crafted for the marine mammal lover in every family and led by our engaging | The Marine Mammal Center |

The Marine
Mammal Center®

EDITORIAL CALENDAR OF EVENTS 2013

Open Daily 10 am – 5 pm (except Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year’s Day). Admission is free.

| | | | |
|----------------------------|---|--|---|
| | | Marine Science Educators and volunteers, these special programs engage the whole family – you’ll create art with real ocean trash, enjoy hands-on exploration with pelts and skulls, and learn how our veterinarians care for our flipper footed friends. Mondays and Fridays at 12pm and 2pm | |
| July 10 | Members Only Night | Second Wednesday of each month March – September. After hours program for Marine Mammal Center members featuring guest speakers and presentations that give a rich context to the work done at the Center. | The Marine Mammal Center |
| June 10 – August 16 | Outside Adventure Summer Camp | The Outside Adventure Kids Multi-Sport Camp offers fun outdoor pursuits each day with an emphasis on developing friendships, understanding risks, and learning. Activities are age appropriate and include: Rock Climbing, Mountain Biking, Hiking, Kayaking and Stand-Up Paddle boarding. Each week of camp will include one hiking day to the Marin Headlands. Groups will begin and end these days at The Marine Mammal Center. In the morning, The Marine Mammal Center Educators will provide an educational overview of the Center. | Marin Headlands – The Marine Mammal Center |

The Marine
Mammal Center®

EDITORIAL CALENDAR OF EVENTS 2013

Open Daily 10 am – 5 pm (except Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year’s Day). Admission is free.

| | | | |
|----------------|---------------------------------------|--|--------------------------|
| July 14 | Marine Science Sunday | Second Sunday of each month – Free public program with different themes each month looking at a variety of marine mammals through interactive presentations, lectures and workshops. | The Marine Mammal Center |
|----------------|---------------------------------------|--|--------------------------|

AUGUST

| Date | Event | Description | Location |
|-----------------------------|---|--|--------------------------|
| August 1 – August 31 | The Ghost Below Art Exhibit | Visit us and experience The Ghost Below - an art experience inspired by one whale's monstrous meal! Richard Lang and Judith Selby Lang's exhibit has been featured at over 40 locations. | The Marine Mammal Center |
| August 1 – August 31 | Summer with the Seals | Enjoy our summer schedule with docent-led tours 3 times daily, as well as special events and open houses that bring to life marine mammal natural history and ocean conservation. Average number of patients on site during this time is about 50 and visitors can see both elephant seals and California sea lions on site. Also features Sizzling Summer Campers program – great for groups! | The Marine Mammal Center |
| June 17 – Sept. | Dive into The Marine | NEW – This summer, you can join The Marine Mammal Center for an ocean of fun | The Marine |

The Marine
Mammal Center®

EDITORIAL CALENDAR OF EVENTS 2013

Open Daily 10 am – 5 pm (except Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year’s Day). Admission is free.

| | | | |
|---------------------|---|---|--|
| 16 | Mammal Center – NEW program experience! | with our In Classroom Experiences. Specially crafted for the marine mammal lover in every family and led by our engaging Marine Science Educators and volunteers, these special programs engage the whole family – you’ll create art with real ocean trash, enjoy hands-on exploration with pelts and skulls, and learn how our veterinarians care for our flipper footed friends. Mondays and Fridays at 12pm and 2pm | Mammal Center |
| June 10 – August 16 | Outside Adventure Summer Camp | The Outside Adventure Kids Multi-Sport Camp offers fun outdoor pursuits each day with an emphasis on developing friendships, understanding risks, and learning. Activities are age appropriate and include: Rock Climbing, Mountain Biking, Hiking, Kayaking and Stand-Up Paddle boarding. Each week of camp will include one hiking day to the Marin Headlands. Groups will begin and end these days at The Marine Mammal Center. In the morning, The Marine Mammal Center Educators will provide an educational overview of the Center. | Marin Headlands – The Marine Mammal Center |
| August 11 | Marine Science Sunday | Second Sunday of each month – Free public program with different themes each month looking at a variety of marine mammals through interactive presentations, lectures and workshops. | The Marine Mammal Center |

The Marine
Mammal Center®

EDITORIAL CALENDAR OF EVENTS 2013

Open Daily 10 am – 5 pm (except Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year’s Day). Admission is free.

| | | | |
|------------------|--|--|---|
| August 14 | Members Only Night | Second Wednesday of each month March – September. After hours program for Marine Mammal Center members featuring guest speakers and presentations that give a rich context to the work done at the Center. | The Marine Mammal Center |
| August 17 | Run for the Seals Race & Fun Day | Run for the Seals is The Marine Mammal Center's annual fun run/walk and fundraiser. The race provides participants with 4-mile run or 2-mile walk. After the event, all participants are invited to attend our Fun Day at The Marine Mammal Center. During Fun Day, you can enjoy complimentary food, drinks and tours, and visit booths staffed by our RFTS Community Partners while learning about the important work of the Center. | Marine Headlands & The Marine Mammal Center |

September

| Date | Event | Description | Location |
|-----------------------------------|---|--|--------------------------|
| September 1 – September 30 | The Ghost Below Art Exhibit | Visit us and experience The Ghost Below - an art experience inspired by one whale's monstrous meal! Richard Lang and Judith Selby Lang’s exhibit has been featured at over 40 locations. | The Marine Mammal Center |

The Marine
Mammal Center®

EDITORIAL CALENDAR OF EVENTS 2013

Open Daily 10 am – 5 pm (except Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year’s Day). Admission is free.

| | | | |
|----------------------------------|---------------------------------------|--|--------------------------------------|
| September 1 – September 8 | Summer with the Seals | Enjoy our summer schedule with docent-led tours 3 times daily, as well as special events and open houses that bring to life marine mammal natural history and ocean conservation. Average number of patients on site during this time is about 50 and visitors can see both elephant seals and California sea lions on site. Also features Sizzling Summer Campers program – great for groups! | The Marine Mammal Center |
| September 8 | Marine Science Sunday | Second Sunday of each month – Free public program with different themes each month looking at a variety of marine mammals through interactive presentations, lectures and workshops. | The Marine Mammal Center |
| September 11 | Members Only Night | Second Wednesday of each month March – September. After hours program for Marine Mammal Center members featuring guest speakers and presentations that give a rich context to the work done at the Center. | The Marine Mammal Center |
| September 21 | International Coastal Cleanup Day | The Marine Mammal Center will host the cleanup activities at Rodeo Beach starting at 9 a.m. followed by a family fun day at the Center. | Rodeo Beach/The Marine Mammal Center |

The Marine
Mammal Center

EDITORIAL CALENDAR OF EVENTS 2013

Open Daily 10 am – 5 pm (except Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year’s Day). Admission is free.

| OCTOBER | | | |
|---------------------------|---|---|--------------------------|
| Date | Event | Description | Location |
| October 1 – October 31 | The Ghost Below Art Exhibit | Visit us and experience The Ghost Below - an art experience inspired by one whale's monstrous meal! Richard Lang and Judith Selby Lang’s exhibit has been featured at over 40 locations. | The Marine Mammal Center |
| October 9 | Members Only Night | Second Wednesday of each month March – September. After hours program for Marine Mammal Center members featuring guest speakers and presentations that give a rich context to the work done at the Center. | The Marine Mammal Center |
| October 13 | Marine Science Sunday | Second Sunday of each month – Free public program with different themes each month looking at a variety of marine mammals through interactive presentations, lectures and workshops. | The Marine Mammal Center |
| October 31 | Happy Halloween, Open House | Free public Open House. Experience docent-led tours 3 times daily, as well as special events that bring to life marine mammal natural history and ocean conservation. Enjoy holiday shopping at our gift store for unique gifts that give back to the patients. | The Marine Mammal Center |

The Marine
Mammal Center

EDITORIAL CALENDAR OF EVENTS 2013

Open Daily 10 am – 5 pm (except Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's Day). Admission is free.

| NOVEMBER | | | |
|------------------------------|---|---|--------------------------|
| Date | Event | Description | Location |
| November 1 – November 30 | The Ghost Below Art Exhibit | Visit us and experience The Ghost Below - an art experience inspired by one whale's monstrous meal! Richard Lang and Judith Selby Lang's exhibit has been featured at over 40 locations. | The Marine Mammal Center |
| November 10 | Marine Science Sunday | Second Sunday of each month – Free public program with different themes each month looking at a variety of marine mammals through interactive presentations, lectures and workshops. | The Marine Mammal Center |
| November 25 – November 30 | Home for the Holidays | Experience docent-led tours 3 times daily, as well as special events that bring to life marine mammal natural history and ocean conservation. Enjoy holiday shopping at our gift store for unique gifts that give back to the patients. | The Marine Mammal Center |

| DECEMBER | | | |
|-----------------------------|---|---|--------------------------|
| Date | Event | Description | Location |
| December 1 – December 31 | The Ghost Below Art Exhibit | Visit us and experience The Ghost Below - an art experience inspired by one whale's monstrous meal! Richard Lang and Judith Selby | The Marine Mammal Center |

The Marine
Mammal Center®

EDITORIAL CALENDAR OF EVENTS 2013

Open Daily 10 am – 5 pm (except Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year’s Day). Admission is free.

| | | | |
|-------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|---|--------------------------|
| | | Lang’s exhibit has been featured at over 40 locations. | |
| December 1 – December 31 | Home for the Holidays | Experience docent-led tours 3 times daily, as well as special events that bring to life marine mammal natural history and ocean conservation. Enjoy holiday shopping at our gift store for unique gifts that give back to the patients. | The Marine Mammal Center |
| December 8 | Marine Science Sunday | Second Sunday of each month – Free public program with different themes each month looking at a variety of marine mammals through interactive presentations, lectures and workshops. | The Marine Mammal Center |
| December 8 | Home for the Holidays, Open House | Free public Open House. Experience docent-led tours 3 times daily, as well as special events that bring to life marine mammal natural history and ocean conservation. Enjoy holiday shopping at our gift store for unique gifts that give back to the patients. | The Marine Mammal Center |

Please check back regularly for updates to the calendar!