Ocean Ambassadors is an exciting marine science education program tailored to meet the unique needs of students in grades 6 through 8 and their teachers. This new program allows us to reach middle school students at a formative time in their lives and ensure that they become the next generation of informed scientists and engaged citizens who will care for and ensure the health of our oceans and environment.

Contact oa@tmmc.org for more information

- NGSS-connected year-long curriculum with resources and materials
- Funded field trips
- Teacher professional development

ALL AT NO COST TO SCHOOLS!