

Stewardship Saturday Explorer

Are you interested in learning how to be a steward for the ocean? Explore the recordings of previous Stewardship Saturday events and consider these questions as you view each event. Watch at least 5 events and complete the form below to receive some merch from The Marine Mammal Center.

Questions	Responses
Getting Your Start in Marine Mammal Science <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What are 3 careers Dr. Laura said work with wildlife rehabilitation? 2. How can you find volunteer opportunities? 3. What can you do to prepare for the marine science field? 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. 2. 3.
Creating Communities for Youth Action in Ocean Conservation <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What is one action you can take to protect our ocean? 2. How did this event encourage you to be a steward for the ocean? 3. What is one new thing that you learned? 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. 2. 3.
Communicating Climate Change <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What makes a conversation about climate change effective? 2. How did this event encourage you to be a steward for the ocean? 3. What is one new thing that you learned? 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. 2. 3.
Ocean Optimism <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What is one statistic that makes you optimistic about our ocean’s future? 2. How can you maintain your hope? 3. How did this event encourage you to be a steward for the ocean? 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. 2. 3.
Your Choice – Pick Another Recording to Watch <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What is one new thing that you learned? 2. How did this event encourage you to be a steward for the ocean? 3. What is an action you plan to take after viewing this event? 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. 2. 3.

Submit your answers to the questions above on this form.

